Some Plain Truth

New price for $9. Suits to-order, For Thinking Men.

We have a right to command attention to our May gathering of Spring Woolens assembled here. A TRADE EPOCH—the bringing of this new price to Washington; we have the greatest tailoring business south of New York, just grown on merit and keeps on growing to get and hold the best class of buyers; our prices are as low as charged for ready-made clothing, and, of course, the work we turn out is the tailor's standard.

We do the tailoring business after the lines the dry goods man does the dry goods business—we are constantly offering special values.

We move our cloths rapidly by putting on them quick selling prices; we have introduced a new staple price this week, and judging from present appearances this will prove the banner week of our business up to date.
